

A Jewish Arts & Music Organization

PRESENTS

A FREE, VIRTUAL CHANUKAH CONCERT

featuring ARI GOLDWAG

Premiering On-Demand Sunday,
December 5th at 5 PM (CST)

RUACH is excited to present a special festive Virtual Concert featuring renowned Jewish pop singer Ari Goldwag on Zos Chanukah, the final night and day of Chanukah.

TO RSVP TO THIS CONCERT VISIT US AT:

bitly.com/ari-goldwag-concert

Filmed outside in the hilltops of Ramat Beit Shemesh, Israel, this virtual concert features music and uplifting commentary recorded especially for RUACH, along with some of Ari Goldwag's popular music videos.

Throughout his career, Ari has released seven solo albums, including his latest hit album "Yesh Li Hakol" released in the summer of 2020, and has starred in and produced several unique music videos. His exceptionally popular video, "Am Echad," has been viewed over eight million times on YouTube. The video promotes a strong and vibrant message of unity among various and diverse groups of the Jewish people. His YouTube channel has reached over 20 Million views.

This program is free and available on-demand through Monday, December 6th at 7:00 PM (CST).

Ever since he was young, Ari Goldwag has been motivated to influence and inspire with his music and Torah. His G-d given gifts include singing, composing, and producing some of the latest hits in contemporary Jewish music. These gifts are present in every album, video, and Torah lesson that Ari shares with his community and fans.

Ari enjoys recording and performing with his son Moshe Dov and introducing fans to his enthusiasm and energy. Ari lives with his wife Talia and their six children in Ramat Beit Shemesh, Israel.

You may learn more about Ari at www.arigoldwag.com

A Jewish Arts & Music Organization

WHO WE ARE

OUR MISSION

RUACH awakens creativity through arts enrichment rooted in Jewish values and the rich cultural diversity of Sherman Park, a neighborhood in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in the United States. RUACH's performances, classes and other innovative programs uplift and unite underserved communities throughout Greater Milwaukee.

Generously Sponsored By: Armin & Hollie Nankin, in memory of Ben Karan, Ben Tzion ben Tzvi HaKohen, of blessed memory

Milwaukee Property Management, LLC

RUACH brings out the creative potential in all whom it encounters through its unique perspective, rooted in Jewish thought, text, and tradition

RUACH was started in 2004 with the assistance of Congregation Beth Jehudah and The Helen Bader Foundation (now Bader Philanthropies). RUACH received its independent Section 501(c)(3) nonprofit status in March 2006.

RUACH (meaning 'spirit,' 'wind,' or 'breath' in Hebrew) has grown to provide creative arts opportunities, set against a Jewish backdrop, to diverse Greater Milwaukee residents. Having grown in size and scope since its founding, RUACH aspires to continue serving Greater Milwaukee and beyond with even more exciting and innovative creative arts programming as it continues its second decade.

6815 W. Capitol Drive, Suite 302,
Milwaukee, WI 53216
T: (414) 367-4890 | F: (414) 255-3592
E-mail: general@ruachmilwaukee.org www.facebook.com/ruachmilwaukee/

www.ruachmilwaukee.org